1. With regard to any nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence disclosed in the international application and necessary to the claimed invention, the international search was carried out on the basis of:

a. type of material

a sequence listing

table(s) related to the sequence listing

Box No. II Observations where certain claims were found unsearchable (Continuation of item 2 of first sheet)

This international search report has not been established in respect of certain claims under Article 17(2)(a) for the following reasons:

1. ☐ Claims Nos.:
because they relate to subject matter not required to be searched by this Authority, namely:
2. ☒ Claims Nos.:
because they relate to parts of the international application that do not comply with the prescribed requirements to such an extent that no meaningful international search can be carried out, specifically:
Claim 24 is a multiply dependent claim which depend from claim 18 which is also a multiply dependent claim.
3. ☒ Claims Nos.: 24
because they are dependent claims and are not drafted in accordance with the second and third sentences of Rule 6.4(a).

Box No. III Observations where unity of invention is lacking (Continuation of item 3 of first sheet)

This International Searching Authority found multiple inventions in this international application, as follows:

1. ☐ As all required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant, this international search report covers all searchable claims.
2. ☐ As all searchable claims could be searched without effort justifying an additional fee, this Authority did not invite payment of any additional fee.
3. ☐ As only some of the required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant, this international search report covers only those claims for which fees were paid, specifically claims Nos.:
4. ☐ No required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant. Consequently, this international search report is restricted to the invention first mentioned in the claims; it is covered by claims Nos.:

Remark on Protest

The additional search fees were accompanied by the applicant's protest.

No protest accompanied the payment of additional search fees.

Box No. III Non-establishment of opinion with regard to novelty, inventive step and industrial applicability

1. The questions whether the claimed invention appears to be novel, to involve an inventive step (to be non-obvious), or to be industrially applicable have not been examined in respect of:

☐ the entire international application

☒ claims Nos. 24

because:

☒ the description, claims or drawings (indicate particular elements below) or said claims Nos. 24 are so unclear that no meaningful opinion could be formed (specify):

Claim 24 is an improper multiply dependency claim because it refers back to claim 18 which is multiply dependent form.

☐ the claims, or said claims Nos. _____ are so inadequately supported by the description that no meaningful opinion could be formed.

Box No. V Reasoned statement under Rule 43 bis.1(a)(i) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. Statement

Novelty (N)	Claims 1-23 25	YES
	Claims NONE	NO
Inventive step (IS)	Claims NONE	YES
	Claims 1-23 25	NO
Industrial applicability (IA)	Claims 1-23 25	YES
	Claims NONE	NO

2. Citations and explanations:

Claims 1-23 and 25 lacks an inventive step under PCT Article 33(3) as being obvious over Sakamoto U Patent 5,989,121 in view of Crumby US Patent 6,533,664. Sakamoto teaches that it is known to have and use in a game machine a mechanical, hardware or software random number generator. Additionally, 6:18-26 discloses that it is well known to have a backup RNG. Sakamoto lacks teaching that the automatic switching of a RNG and all of the networking protocols. In an game machine that uses RNG over a network Crumby teaches all of the networking aspects of transferring random numbers. One of ordinary skill in the art understands that all computer parts fail, software hardware etc and the automatic switching of a hardware or software part is called a fail safe mode so that ones equipment does not stop working. It would be obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to monitor a RNG and based on a failure switch to another RNG given the motivation of Sakamoto that having a backup RNG is well known.

Claims 1-23 and 25 meet the criteria set out in PCT Article 33(4), and thus meet industrial applicability because the subject matter claimed can be made or used in industry.
